

Instructions for adding the Health Food Finder Icon to your Home Screen or Desktop

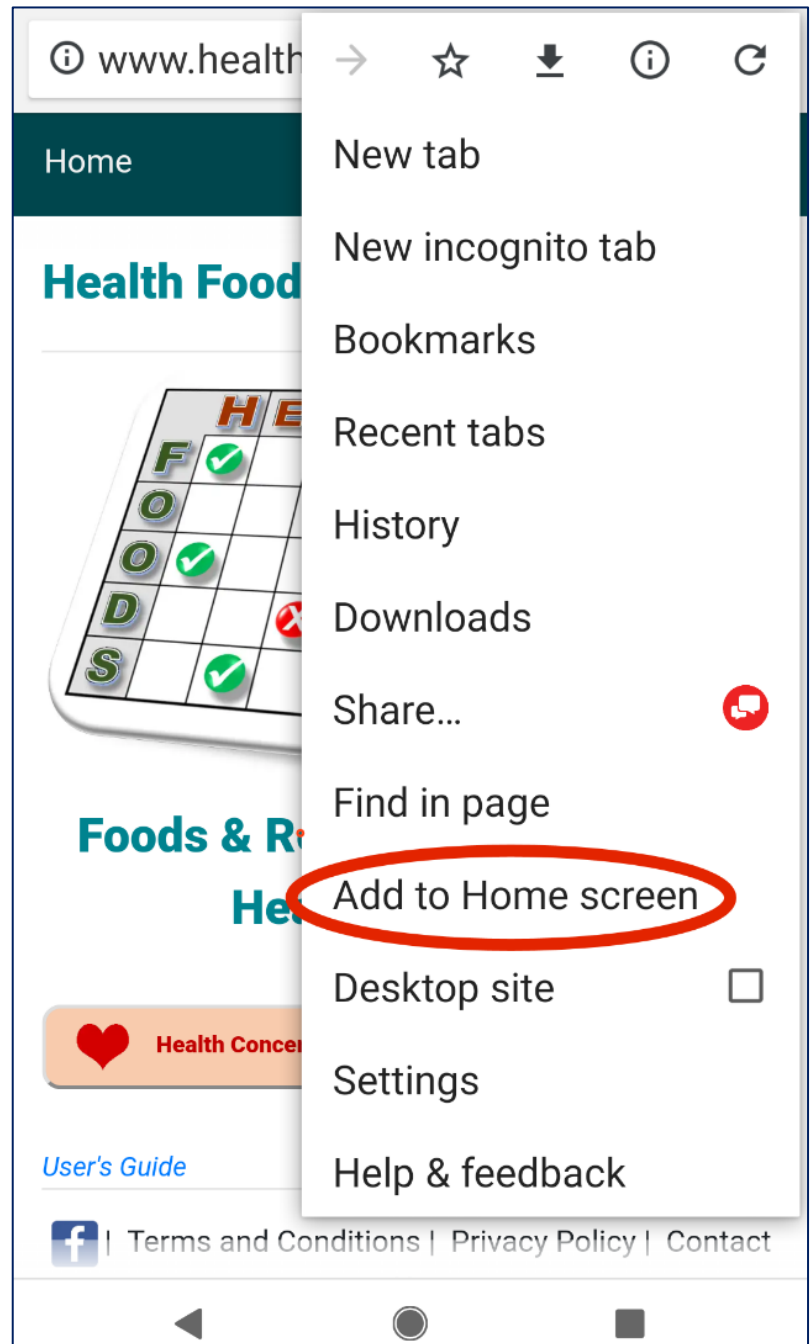

To open this program quicker, you may want to add the Health Food Finder's icon to the home screen of your smartphone or tablet. If you access the program from a desktop computer or Windows mobile, you can put the icon on your taskbar, start screen or desktop screen. Following are the instructions for three most common types of operating systems:

- Android
- iPhone, iPad & iPod Touch
- Windows (internet explorer or Google Chrome)

For Android

Launch Chrome for Android and open HealthFoodFinder.com. Tap the browser menu button and tap Add to home screen.

You have the option to enter the program name (Health Food Finder) or an abbreviation, if you like. The Health Food Finder icon will appear on your home screen and you can drag and put it wherever you like. When you tap this icon, the website will be loaded as a “web app” without any browser interface

For iPhone, iPad & iPod Touch

Launch the Safari browser on Apple's iOS and open HealthFoodFinder.com. Tap the Share button that looks like a rectangle with an arrow pointing up. On the share menu, tap on the Add to Home Screen icon.

You have the option to enter the program name (Health Food Finder) or an abbreviation, if you like. The Health Food Finder icon will appear on your home screen and you can drag and put it wherever you like. When you tap this icon, it will load Health Food Finder in a normal tab inside the Safari browser app.

For Windows

Internet Explorer

Launch the Internet Explorer browser and navigate to HealthFoodFinder.com. Open the windows menu (three dots icon) and select either Pin this Page to the Taskbar or Pin this Page to Start. Health Food Finder icon will appear on the taskbar or Start screen.

Google Chrome

Launch Google Chrome and navigate to HealthFoodFinder.com. Open the windows menu (three dots icon) and select More Tools option. Then, select Create Shortcut. You have the option to enter the program name (Health Food Finder) or an abbreviation, if you like. Health Food Finder icon will appear on your desktop.
